Hilton
STUDIO

Reputation of quality & craftsmanship

Hilton Studio is a craft studio specialising in handbound, inscribed and illuminated Books of Remembrance for Crematoria, Churches, Hospitals etc. Our reputation for quality has been built up over more than forty years of service to our customers.

During this time we have produced Books of Remembrance for Churches, Funeral Directors, Hospitals and other establishments both in the United Kingdom and overseas. Books are often donated by parishioners in memory of a loved one, and a suitable dedication is inscribed in the front of the book.

As a result of our wide experience have evolved a standard book to suit most parishes. The book is usually viewed on an anniversary system, with a half page per day, accommodating eighteen two line entries. Books are generally returned to the studio on a regular basis for inscription. The book is either full bound or loose leaf and covered in leather with gold tooling to the front. Standard measurements are usually 14" x 11" when closed.

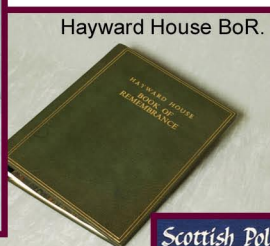

Usually the book is bound as described, however, as all our books are individually hand made it is possible to have a book made to your specification. Size, format, layout and materials may all be varied as required. The books do not have to be for remembrance only and we have provided other books for the purposes of donations, patronage, gifts and Millenium books to name but a few.
